The Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2008

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 25th July, 2007<sup>a</sup>, and in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 21C of the Financial Services Commission (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1987<sup>b</sup>, as amended, and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order: –

Site visits with notice and with agreement.

1. (1) The Commission's officers may, at such times, intervals and places as they think fit, and –

- (a) with a view to the performance of the Commission's statutory functions, or
- (b) if they consider it desirable to do so for the protection of the interests of the public or any class thereof, or any particular persons, or the reputation of the Bailiwick as a finance centre, make arrangements with any licensee for the making, in such manner and for such purposes as may be mutually agreed, of site visits to the offices of the licensee or any associated party thereof (or any person acting for or on behalf of the licensee or associated party) for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the licensee or associated party is complying with the provisions of the regulatory Laws [or any Ordinance, regulation, order, rule, code, instruction, guidance, principle, condition, requirement or direction under them or the Transfer of Funds Ordinances or any regulation, order, rule, instruction or guidance under them].

<sup>b</sup> Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXX, p. 243; amended by No. XX of 1991; No. XIII of 1994; No. II of 1997; No. II of 1998; No's. XVII and XXI of 2002; No's. III and XXII of 2003; the Machinery of Government (Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2003 (No. XXXIII); and the Financial Services Commission (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2005 (No. XXXIV).

(2) Site visits may take place at any or all of the premises where business is conducted or records are maintained by the licensee or associated party and are not limited to premises in the Bailiwick.

(3) Where a licensee or associated party fails to co-operate with the Commission's officers or any person acting for and on behalf of the Commission when exercising or attempting to exercise their functions for the purposes of this section (whether by declining to reach agreement as to the making, timing or scope of a site visit, or by failing to provide any information or document or to answer any question, or otherwise), that failure may be taken into account by the Commission in deciding whether and in what manner to exercise its statutory functions arising otherwise than under this section.

NOTE

In section 1, the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2010, section 2, with effect from 28th July, 2010.

Site visits with notice and without agreement.

2. The Commission's officers may on request, and with 48 hours' notice given before 4 p.m. on a business day, enter any premises in the Bailiwick owned, leased or otherwise controlled or occupied by a licensee [or associated party thereof].

NOTE

In section 2, the words in square brackets were inserted by the Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2010, section 3, with effect from 28th July, 2010.

Site visits without notice and where suspicion of documents being removed etc.

3. If the Commission's officers have grounds to suspect that a site visit made under section 1 or 2 would result in any documents being removed, tampered with, falsified or destroyed, then they may enter any premises in the Bailiwick owned, leased or otherwise controlled or occupied by a licensee [or associated party thereof] on request but without notice.

NOTE

In section 3, the words in square brackets were inserted by the Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2010, section 3, with effect from 28th July, 2010.

Use of the right of entry in sections 2 and 3.

4. Except in cases of urgency the right of entry conferred by sections 2 and 3 may only be exercised between 9.00 a.m. and 4.00 p.m. on a business day.

Request for information.

5. If the Commission's officers exercise their right of entry under sections 1, 2 or 3 they may require the officers, servants or agents of the licensee [or associated party thereof] –

(a) to produce for examination (whether at the premises of the licensee [or associated party thereof] or at the offices of the Commission) any documents held by them,

- (b) to produce copies of any documents in a legible form for the Commission's officers to take away,
- (c) to answer questions for the purpose of verifying compliance with any of the [provisions referred to in section 1(1)].

NOTES

In section 3,

the words "or associated party thereof" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were inserted by the Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2010, section 3, with effect from 28th July, 2010;

the words in square brackets in paragraph (c) were substituted by the Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2010, section 4, with effect from 28th July, 2010.

Power of Bailiff to grant warrant.

6. (1) If the Bailiff is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting –

- (a) that a request or requirement under sections 1, 2, 3 or 5 has not been complied with,
- (b) that any information or document furnished pursuant to such a request or requirement is false, misleading,

inaccurate or incomplete,

- (c) that if such a request or requirement were made –
  - (i) it would not be complied with,
  - (ii) any documents to which it would relate would be removed, tampered with, falsified or destroyed, or
  - (iii) the making of the request or requirement or any attempt to enforce it might significantly prejudice any inquiry to which the request or requirement would relate,

he may grant a warrant.

(2) A warrant under this section authorises any police officer, together with any other person named or described in the warrant (including, without limitation, the Commission's officers) –

- (a) to enter any premises specified in the warrant using such force as may be reasonably necessary,
- (b) to search the premises and, in relation to any documents appearing to be relevant for the purpose of establishing [whether the licensee or associated party thereof has complied with any of the provisions referred to in section 1(1)], to take possession of them or to take any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them or preventing interference with them,

- (c) to take copies of or extracts from any such documents,
- (d) to require any person named in, or of a class or description specified in, the warrant –
  - (i) to answer any questions relevant to establishing whether the licensee [or associated party thereof] has complied with any of the [provisions referred to in section 1(1)],
  - (ii) to state to the best of his knowledge and belief the whereabouts of any documents described in paragraph (b),
  - (iii) to make an explanation of any such documents.

(3) A warrant under this section ceases to be valid on the expiration of 28 days immediately following the day on which it was issued.

(4) Any documents of which possession is taken under the powers conferred by a warrant under this section may be retained –

- (a) for a period of 4 months or such longer period as the Bailiff may, when issuing the warrant or at any time thereafter, direct, or
- (b) if within that period proceedings to which the documents are relevant are commenced against any person, until the conclusion of those proceedings.

NOTE

In section 3, the words in the first, second and third pairs of square brackets were, respectively, substituted, inserted and substituted by the Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2010, section 5, section 6(a) and section 6(b), with effect from 28th July, 2010.

Disclosure of information.

7. (1) Nothing in this Ordinance compels the production or divulgence of an item subject to legal professional privilege, but an advocate or other legal adviser may be required to give the name and address of a client.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a requirement imposed –

(a) under sections 1, 2, 3 or 5, or

(b) imposed by or under a warrant under section 6,

has effect notwithstanding any obligation as to confidentiality or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute, contract or otherwise, and accordingly the obligation or restriction is not contravened by the making of a disclosure pursuant to such a requirement.

[(3) Where a person claims a lien on a document, its production under –

(a) section 1, 2, 3 or 5, or

- (b) a warrant granted under section 6,

is without prejudice to his lien.]

NOTE

In section 7, subsection (3) was inserted by the Financial Services Commission (Site Visits) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2010, section 7, with effect from 28th July, 2010.

Use of statements as evidence.

[8. A statement made by a person in response to a requirement under section 1, 2, 3, or 5, or imposed by or under a warrant under section 6 –

- (a) may be used in evidence against him in proceedings other than criminal proceedings, and

- (b) may not be used in evidence against him in criminal proceedings except –

- (i) where evidence relating to it is adduced, or a question relating to it is asked, in the proceedings by or on behalf of that person, or

- (ii) in proceedings for –

- (A) an offence under section 9,

- (B) some other offence where, in giving evidence, he makes a statement inconsistent with it, but the statement is only admissible to the extent necessary to establish the inconsistency,

(C) perjury, or

(D) perverting the course of justice.]

NOTE

Section 8 was substituted by the Statements Obtained Under Compulsion (Restriction of Use) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2009, section 1, Schedule, with effect from 5th August, 2010.

Offences.

9. (1) A person who without reasonable excuse obstructs or fails to comply with a request or requirement of a person exercising or purporting to exercise any power conferred by sections 2, 3, 5 or 6 of this Ordinance is guilty of an offence and liable –

- (i) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both, or
- (ii) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to a fine, or to both.

Consolidated text

(2) A person who in purported compliance with a requirement imposed by or under this Ordinance –

- (a) makes a statement which he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular,
- (b) recklessly makes a statement which is false or misleading in a material particular,

is guilty of an offence and liable –

- (i) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both, or
- (ii) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to a fine, or to both.

[(3) A person –

- (a) to whose premises a site visit under section 1, 2 or 3 has been or is to be made or who knows or has reasonable grounds to suspect that the Commission has requested or is likely to request that arrangements for such a site visit be made, or
- (b) to whom a request or requirement under section 1, 2, 3 or 5 has been made or who knows or has reasonable
