THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 26th day of June, 2002^a, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

PART I

RESTRICTIONS ON CARRYING ON INSURANCE BUSINESS

Preliminary

General restriction on carrying on insurance business.

1. (1) Subject to section 5, and without prejudice to subsection (4) of this section and sections 3 and 4, a person shall not carry on, or hold himself out as carrying on, insurance business in or from within the Bailiwick unless –

- (a) if that business is long term business, that person is licensed by the Commission as an insurer in respect of long term business,
- (b) if that business is general business, that person is licensed by the Commission as an insurer in respect of general business.

^a Article V of Billet d'État No. XIII of 2002.

(2) For the purposes of this Law, except to the extent that in any particular case the Commission may otherwise direct, a person shall be deemed to be holding himself out as carrying on insurance business in or from within the Bailiwick if –

- (a) by way of business as an insurer, he occupies premises in the Bailiwick or makes it known by an advertisement or by an insertion in a directory or by means of letterheads [or otherwise] that he may be contacted at a particular address in the Bailiwick,
- (b) he invites a person in the Bailiwick, by issuing an insurance advertisement or otherwise, to enter into or to offer to enter into a contract of insurance, or
- (c) he is otherwise seen to be carrying on insurance business in or from within the Bailiwick.

[(2A) However, an insurer of the description set out in paragraph (c) of the definition of "recognised insurer" in Schedule 5 shall not be regarded for the purposes of this Law as carrying on, or holding himself out as carrying on, insurance business in or from within the Bailiwick by reason only of the fact that –

- (a) he contacts or visits a client in the Bailiwick at the request of that client, or
- (b) he effects or carries out a contract of insurance, other than through a licensed insurance intermediary within the meaning of the Insurance Managers and Insurance Intermediaries (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2002, in consequence of such a request.]

[(2B) For the purposes of subsection (2) –

- (a) an application for a direction under that subsection shall be made in such form and manner, and shall be accompanied by such information and documents, as the Commission may require,
- (b) the application shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed by regulations under section 94,
- (c) the application may be refused or granted subject to such conditions as the Commission may consider necessary or expedient,
- (d) the Commission may at any time after receipt of the application require the applicant to furnish such additional information and documents as it considers necessary or desirable,
- (e) the direction may be revoked or varied at any time by the Commission by written notice to the person to whom it was made,
- (f) any such variation may include the attachment of such conditions, or the removal or modification of such conditions previously attached, as the Commission may think fit,
- (g) the direction shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (e), be valid for such period (if any) as the Commission may determine,

- (h) if, whether before or after the making of a direction, there is any change of fact or circumstance, or any change to any of the information supplied to the Commission by or on behalf of the applicant or (as the case may be) the person to whom the direction was granted for the purposes of the application or direction (whether by virtue of the information becoming out of date, or being found to be incomplete or inaccurate, or otherwise), the applicant or that person shall inform the Commission of the change, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the change and in any event within a period of 14 days thereafter (or such other period as the Commission may determine), and
- (i) a failure to comply with any requirement arising by virtue of paragraph (h) is, without limitation and without prejudice to any other provision of this Law or the Enforcement Powers Law, a ground for the refusal or revocation of the direction.]

(3) For the purposes of this section an advertisement issued or other invitation made by any person on behalf of or to the order of another person shall be treated as an advertisement issued or other invitation made, as the case may be, by that other person.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the States may by Ordinance prohibit all licensed insurers or licensed insurers of any specified class from effecting contracts of insurance of any description specified in the Ordinance; and in the event of an Ordinance being made under this subsection a licensed insurer shall not effect a contract of any description specified in the Ordinance on or after the date of commencement of the Ordinance during the continuance in force of the Ordinance.

(5) An Ordinance under subsection (4) shall not prevent a licensed insurer from effecting a contract in pursuance of an obligation to do so contained in a contract lawfully entered into and subsisting immediately before the date of commencement of the Ordinance; but a licensed insurer who is under an obligation to effect a contract of insurance which, apart from the preceding provisions of this subsection, he would have been prevented by an Ordinance under subsection (4) from effecting, shall notify the Commission in writing of the existence and nature of that obligation within the 14 days next following the date of commencement of that Ordinance or within such longer period as the Commission may in any particular case allow.

(8) A person who contravenes any provision of a direction under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(9) Where the directed person is a licensee, the contravention of a direction under this section –

(10) In the event of failure by the directed person to comply with a direction under this section, the Commission may, without prejudice to any other penalties, powers or proceedings in respect of the failure to comply, apply to the appropriate Court for an order requiring the directed person to comply, in such manner as the appropriate Court thinks fit, with the direction; and an order of the appropriate Court under this subsection may contain such incidental, ancillary, consequential and supplementary provision, and may be made on such terms and conditions and subject to such penalty, as the appropriate Court thinks proper.

(11) In considering whether or not to impose, vary or rescind any direction the Commission may, without limitation, have regard (so far as relevant) to any matter to which it may have regard under the provisions of section 7 of this Law or section 28 or 29 of the Enforcement Powers Law when considering whether or not to grant an application for, or (as the case may be) to suspend or revoke, a licence.

(12) The Commission may publish, in such manner (including, without limitation, by being placed on the Commission's official website) and for such period as the Commission may determine, notice of the imposition, variation or rescission of a direction and the date from which any such direction, variation or rescission is effective; and, in deciding whether or not to do so, the Commission shall have regard to the interests of the public and the reputation of the Bailiwick as a finance centre.

The publication may contain such information in respect of any person named therein, and such ancillary, incidental and supplementary information, as the Commission may determine.

(13) In this section the "appropriate Court" means –

- (a) the Court of Alderney, where the directed person is within the jurisdiction of that Court,

 - (C) perjury, or
 - (D) perverting the course of justice.

(11) The provisions of this section –

- (a) are in addition to and not in derogation from the other provisions of this Law, and
