EXPLANATORY NOTE
(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend Schedules 1 and 2 to the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1999.

Schedule 1 to that Law lists those businesses which are financial services businesses for the purpose of the Law. The amendments made to Schedule 1 by these Regulations include –

- (a) an amendment which has the effect, in relation to some businesses listed in Schedule 1, that they are "financial services businesses" only when carried on by way of business for or on behalf of a customer, and
- (b) an amendment which adds to the list of businesses, subject to certain exceptions (including, for example, a postal services business carried on under the authority of a licence granted under the Post Office (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2001), the businesses of the buying, selling or arranging the buying or selling of, or otherwise dealing in, bullion or buying or selling postage stamps.

Schedule 2 to the Law prescribes those businesses that are "relevant businesses" for the purposes of the Law. The businesses of dealing in high value goods, estate agency, the provision of casinos or organized gambling services and the provision of legal and accountancy services are all relevant businesses. These Regulations amend the description of legal and accountancy services in order to include services provided by way of business by external accountants, insolvency practitioners, auditors and tax advisers, except where the services are provided by employed persons to their employers.

There are supplemental and transitional provisions which defer, until 4 October 2010, any requirement for businesses that fall within the new definition of the business of legal and accountancy services to register under the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Legal Professionals, Accountants and Estate Agents) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Regulations, 2008 ("the 2008 Regulations"). During the transitional period which runs from the date of commencement of these Regulations until 4 October 2010, businesses can nonetheless register with the Guernsey Financial Services Commission under the 2008 Regulations. As from 1 November 2010 businesses falling within the new definition must both be registered and comply with the relevant regulations and rules.
