ENTITLED

The Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1999

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 1st day of August, 1997^a, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

PART I

CONFISCATION ORDERS, RESTRAINT ORDERS & CHARGING ORDERS

Meaning of "criminal conduct".

1. (1) [Subject to section 44A, in this Law] "criminal conduct" means any conduct, other than drug trafficking –

- (a) which constitutes a criminal offence under the laws of the Bailiwick which may be tried on indictment, or
- (b) which would constitute such an offence if it were to take place in the Bailiwick.

(2) In subsection (1) "drug trafficking" means any conduct covered by the definition of "drug trafficking" or "drug trafficking offence" in the

^a Article XXII of Billet d'État No. XVI of 1997.

Drug Trafficking Offences (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1988 and the Drug Trafficking (Amendment) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1992^b.

NOTES

In section 1, the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2007, section 2, with effect from 3rd December, 2007.

The following cases have referred to this Law:

Garnet Investments Limited v. BNP Paribas (Suisse) S.A. and Government of Republic of Indonesia 2007–08 GLR 73;

Fidelity Management Limited v. Royal Bank of Canada (Channel Islands) Limited (2007) (Unreported, Royal Court, 20th September) (Guernsey Judgment No 29/2007); 2007–08 GLR Note 14;

McCarthy v. Law Officers of the Crown 2007–08 GLR 414;

HM Procureur v Peter Edward Dawson-Ball [2021]GRC061 (Unreported, Royal Court, 15th December).

The Drug Trafficking Offences (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1988 and the Drug Trafficking (Amendment) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1992 have both since been repealed by the Drug Trafficking (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2000, section 74, Schedule 5, with effect from 1st December, 2000, subject to the transitional provisions in section 73 of, and Schedule 4 to, the 2000 Law.

Confiscation orders

Confiscation orders.

2. (1) Where a defendant appears before [the Court] to be sentenced in respect of one or more offences committed after the commencement of this Law (and has not previously been sentenced or otherwise dealt with in respect of his conviction for the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned), then, if Her Majesty's Procureur in writing asks the Court to proceed under this section, it shall act as follows.

^b Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXXI, p. 109; and Order in Council No. V of 1992.

(2) The Court shall firstly determine whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct.

(3) For the purposes of this Law, a person has benefited from criminal conduct if he has [(whether before or after the commencement of this Law and whether directly or indirectly) acquired or obtained property (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any interest, dividend or other form of income or accrued value deriving directly, or indirectly, from that property)] as a result of or in connection with his or any other person's criminal conduct; and if he has derived a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct, he is to be treated as if he had obtained instead a sum of money equal to the value of the pecuniary advantage.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), if the Court determines that the defendant has so benefited, it shall, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned, determine in accordance with section 5 the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of this section.

(5) The Court shall then, in respect of the offence or offences concerned –

(a) order the defendant to pay that amount,

(b) take account of the order before –

(i) imposing any fine on him,

- (ii) making any order involving any payment by him, other than an order under section 1 of the Criminal Justice (Compensation) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1990^c (compensation orders),
- (iii) making an order under section 26 of the Misuse of Drugs (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1974^d (forfeiture orders),
- (c) subject to paragraph (b), leave the order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with him.

(6) If, in a case falling within subsection (4), the Court is satisfied that a victim of any relevant criminal conduct has instituted, or intends to institute, civil proceedings against the defendant in respect of loss, injury or damage sustained in connection with that conduct –

- (a) the Court shall have a power, instead of a duty, to make an order under this section,
- (b) section 5 shall not apply for determining the amount to be recovered in that case by virtue of this section, and
- (c) where the Court makes an order in exercise of that power, the sum required to be paid under that order shall be of such an amount, not exceeding the amount that would (but for paragraph (b)) apply by virtue of section 5, as the Court thinks fit.

^c Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXXII, p. 77.

^d Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXIV, p. 273.

(7) No enactment restricting the power of the Court dealing with an offender in a particular way from dealing with him also in any other way shall, by reason only of the making of an order under this section, restrict the Court from dealing with an offender in any way the Court considers appropriate in respect of an offence.

(8) The standard of proof required to determine any question arising under this Law as to –

- (a) whether a person has benefited from criminal conduct, or
- (b) the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of this section, shall be that applicable in civil proceedings [(that is to say, a balance of probabilities)].

(9) Where –

- (a) the Court makes both a confiscation order and an order for the payment of compensation under section 1 of the Criminal Justice (Compensation) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1990 against the same person in the same proceedings, and
- (b) it appears to the Court that he will not have sufficient means to satisfy both the orders in full,

it shall direct that so much of the compensation as will not in its opinion be recoverable because of the insufficiency of his means shall be paid out of any sums recovered under the confiscation order.

(10) In this Law "confiscation order" means an order under this section and includes such an order made by virtue of section 13, 14 or 19.

NOTES

In section 2,

the words in square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Criminal Justice (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2022, section 5(2), with effect from 21st December, 2022;

the words in square brackets in subsection (3) were substituted by the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) (No. 2) Ordinance, 2010, section 1(2), with effect from 28th July, 2010;

the words in square brackets in subsection (8) were inserted by the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2007, section 3, with effect from 3rd December, 2007.

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 2 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 1, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Postponed determinations.

3. (1) Where the Court is acting under section 2 but considers that it requires further information before –

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct, or
- (b) determining the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of that section,

it may, for the purpose of enabling that information to be obtained, postpone making that determination for such period as it may specify.

(2) More than one postponement may be made under subsection (1) in relation to the same case.

(3) Unless it is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, the Court shall not specify a period under subsection (1) which –

(a) by itself, or

(b) where there have been one or more previous postponements under subsection (1) or (4), when taken together with the earlier specified period or periods, exceeds six months beginning with the date of conviction.

(4) Where the defendant appeals against the conviction, the Court may, on that account –

(a) postpone making either or both of the determinations mentioned in subsection (1) for such period as it may specify, or

(b) where it has already exercised its powers under this section to postpone, extend the specified period.

(5) A postponement or extension under subsection (1) or (4) may be made –

(a) on application by the defendant or Her Majesty's Procureur, or

(b) by the Court of its own motion.

(6) Unless the Court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, any postponement or extension under subsection (4) shall not exceed the period ending three months after the date on which the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.

(7) Where the Court exercises its power under subsection (1) or (4), it may nevertheless proceed to sentence, or otherwise deal with, the defendant in respect of the relevant offence or any of the relevant offences.

(8) Where the Court has so proceeded, section 2 shall have effect as if –

(a) in subsection (4), the words "before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted, and

(b) in subsection (5)(c), after the word "determining", there were inserted "in relation to any offence in respect of which he has not been sentenced or otherwise dealt with".

(9) In sentencing, or otherwise dealing with, the defendant in respect of the relevant offence or any of the relevant offences at any time during the specified period, the Court shall not –

- (a) impose any fine on him, or
- (b) make any such order as is mentioned in section 2(5)(b)(ii) or (iii).

(10) Where the Court has sentenced the defendant under subsection (7) during the specified period it may, after the end of that period, vary the sentence by imposing a fine or making an order as mentioned in section 2 (5)(b)(ii) or (iii).

(11) In this section –

"the date of conviction" means –

- (a) the date on which the defendant was convicted, or
- (b) where he appeared to be sentenced in respect of more than one conviction, and those convictions were not all on the same date, the date of the latest of those convictions, and

"the relevant offence" means the offence in respect of which the defendant appears (as mentioned in section 2(1)) before the Court.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 3 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Assessing the proceeds of criminal conduct.

4. (1) For the purposes of this Law –

- (a) any property obtained by a person at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this Law) as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person are his proceeds of criminal conduct, and
- (b) the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct is the aggregate of the values of the property.

(2) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the Court shall for the purpose –

- (a) of determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct, and
- (b) if he has, of assessing the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct, make the required assumptions.

(3) The required assumptions are –

- (a) that any property appearing to the Court –
 - (i) to have been held by the defendant at any time since his conviction, or
 - (ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, was received by him, at the earliest time at which he appears to the Court to have held it, as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him,

- (b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period was met out of payments received by him as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him, and
- (c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him at any time as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct, he received the property free of any other interest in it.

(4) The Court shall not make any required assumption in relation to any particular property or expenditure if –

- (a) that assumption is shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case, or
- (b) the Court is satisfied that there would be a serious risk of injustice in the defendant's case if the assumption were to be made, and, where by virtue of this subsection the Court does not make one or more of the required assumptions, it shall state its reasons.

(5) For the purpose of assessing the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct in a case where a confiscation order has previously been made against him, the Court shall leave out of account any of his proceeds of criminal conduct that are shown to the Court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that previous order.

[(6) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a) a required assumption is not shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case in relation to any property or expenditure by reason of it being shown that –

- (a) the property was received by him as a result of or in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another person or, as the case may be,
- (b) the expenditure was met out of payments received by him as a result of or in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another person.

(7) In this section "drug trafficking" has the meaning given by section 1(2).]

NOTES

In section 4, subsection (6) and subsection (7) were inserted by the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2007, section 4, with effect from 3rd December, 2007.

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 4 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Amount to be recovered under a confiscation order.

5. (1) Subject to section 2(6)(b) and to subsection (3), the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case under the confiscation order shall be the amount the Court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct.

(2) If the Court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made (whether by reason of the acceptance of an allegation made in a statement given under section 11 or made in the giving of information under section 12, or otherwise) the Court may issue a certificate giving the Court's opinions as to the matters concerned, and shall do so if satisfied as mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) If the Court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the Court assesses to be the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct, the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case under the confiscation order shall be –

- (a) the amount appearing to the Court to be the amount that might be so realised, or
- (b) a nominal amount, where it appears to the Court (on the information available to it at the time) that the amount that might be so realised is nil.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 5 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

- (a) any property held by the defendant, and

^g Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXVIII, p. 184; No. VII of 1992; No. III of 1993 and No. IX of 1998.

7. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section and to section 8, for the purposes of this Law the value of property (other than cash) in relation to any person holding the property is the market value of the property, except that, where any other person holds an interest in the property, the value is –

- (a) the market value of the first mentioned person's beneficial interest in the property, less
- (b) the amount required to discharge any encumbrance (other than a charging order) on that interest.

(2) Subject to section 8(2), references in this Law to the value at any time (referred to in subsection (3) as "the material time") of a gift caught by this Law or of any property obtained by a person as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct are references to –

- (a) the value of the gift or property to the recipient when he received or obtained it, adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money, or
- (b) where subsection (3) applies, the value therein mentioned, whichever is the greater.

- (a) the property which he received or obtained (not being cash), or

- (b) property which, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly represents in his hands the property which he received or obtained, the value referred to in subsection (2)(b) is the value to him at the material time of the property mentioned in paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, of the property mentioned in paragraph (b) so far as it so represents the property which he received or obtained, but disregarding in either case any charging order made under this Law.

Gifts caught by this Law.

8. (1) A gift (including a gift made before the commencement of this Law) is caught by this Law if –

- (a) it was made by the defendant at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, or
- (b) it was made by the defendant at any time and was a gift of property –
 - (i) received by the defendant in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person, or
 - (ii) which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in the defendant's hands property received by him in that connection.

(2) For the purposes of this Law –

- (a) the circumstances in which the defendant is to be treated as making a gift include those where he transfers property to another person directly or indirectly for a consideration the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration provided by the defendant, and

- (b) in those circumstances, the provisions of subsection (1) and of section 7 shall apply as if the defendant had made a gift of such share in the property as bears to the whole property the same proportion as the difference between the values referred to in paragraph (a) bears to the value of the consideration provided by the defendant.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 8 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Procedure for enforcing confiscation orders.

9. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where the Court orders the defendant to pay any amount under section 2, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the defendant to be imprisoned in default of payment of the amount.

(2) When exercising its powers under subsection (1) the Court may in respect of a confiscation order of an amount in Column 1 below impose a term of imprisonment not exceeding the maximum period set out opposite that amount in Column 2—

Column 1	Column 2
AMOUNT OF CONFISCATION ORDER	MAXIMUM PERIOD
An amount not exceeding £200	7 days
An amount exceeding £200 but not exceeding £500	14 days

An amount exceeding £250,000 but not exceeding £1 million	5 years
An amount exceeding £1 million	10 years;

and the States may by Ordinance amend the amounts and periods set out in the above table.

(3) The Court may, in its discretion, defer such imprisonment on such terms as it thinks fit.

(4) Where an order of imprisonment is made under this section, it shall cease to have effect on payment of the full amount ordered to be paid under section 2.

(5) Where an order of imprisonment is made under this section and payment is made of part of the amount ordered under section 2, the term of imprisonment to be served as a result of the order under this section shall be reduced in proportion to the amount paid.

(6) A term of imprisonment imposed under this section in default of payment shall be served consecutively to any term of imprisonment which the defendant may be liable to serve in respect of any offence or offences.

(7) The reference in subsection (6) to any term of imprisonment which the defendant is liable to serve in respect of any offence or offences is a reference to the term of imprisonment or youth detention (as the case may be) which he is liable to serve in respect of the offence or offences; and for the purposes of this subsection –

- (a) consecutive terms and terms which are wholly or partly concurrent are treated as a single term, and
- (b) the Court shall disregard any sentence which is suspended under section 1 of the Criminal Justice (Power to Suspend Sentence) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1972^h and which has not been activated at the time when a term of imprisonment is imposed under this section.

(8) Where the defendant serves a term of imprisonment imposed under this section without satisfying the amount due under a confiscation order, his serving that term does not prevent the confiscation order from continuing to have effect, so far as any other method of enforcement is concerned.

(9) This section applies in relation to confiscation orders made by the Criminal Division of the Court of Appeal in the same way as it applies to such orders made by the Court, and references in this section to the Court shall be construed accordingly.

NOTE

order is not paid when it is required to be paid, that person shall be liable to pay interest on that sum for the period in which it remains unpaid; and the amount of interest shall for the purposes of enforcement be treated as part of the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order.

(2) The Court may, on the application of Her Majesty's Procureur, increase the term of imprisonment fixed in respect of the confiscation order under section 9(1) where subsection (1) applies and interest has accrued.

(3) The rate of interest under subsection (1) is that for the time being applying to a judgment debt under section 2 of the Judgments (Interest) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1985ⁱ.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 10 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Statements relating to criminal conduct.

11. (1) Where Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under section 2, he shall give the Court, within such period as it may direct, a statement of matters which he considers relevant in connection with –

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct, or
- (b) assessing the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct.

ⁱ Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXIX, p. 133; amended by Order of the Royal Court No. I of 1996.

(2) In this section such a statement is referred to as a "prosecutor's statement".

(3) Where Her Majesty's Procureur has given a prosecutor's statement –

- (a) he may at any time give the Court a further such statement, and
- (b) the Court may at any time require him to give it a further such statement, within such period as it may direct.

(4) Where any prosecutor's statement has been given and the Court is satisfied that a copy of the statement has been served on the defendant, it may require the defendant –

- (a) to indicate to it, within such period as it may direct, the extent to which he accepts each allegation in the statement, and
- (b) so far as he does not accept any such allegation, to give particulars of any matters on which he proposes to rely.

(5) Where the Court has given a direction or made a requirement under this section it may at any time vary it by giving or making a further direction or requirement.

(6) Where the defendant accepts to any extent any allegation in any prosecutor's statement, the Court may, for the purposes of –

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct, or
- (b) assessing the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct, treat his acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(7) If the defendant fails in any respect to comply with a requirement under subsection (4) he may be treated for the purposes of this section as accepting every allegation in the prosecutor's statement in question apart from –

- (a) any allegation in respect of which he has complied with the requirement, and
- (b) any allegation that he has benefited from criminal conduct or that any property was received or obtained by him as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person.

(8) Where –

- (a) there is given to the Court by the defendant a statement as to matters relevant to determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made, and
- (b) Her Majesty's Procureur accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement, the Court may, for the purposes of that determination, treat the acceptance by Her Majesty's Procureur as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(9) An allegation may be accepted, or particulars of any matter may be given, for the purposes of this section in such manner as the Court may direct.

(10) No acceptance by the defendant under this section that any property was received or obtained by him as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings for an offence.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 11 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Provision of information by defendant.

12. (1) This section applies where Her Majesty's Procureur has asked the Court to proceed under section 2.

(2) For the purpose of obtaining information to assist it in carrying out its functions, the Court may at any time order the defendant to give it such information as may be specified in the order.

(3) An order under subsection (2) may require all, or any specified part, of the required information to be given to the Court in such manner, and for such date, as may be specified in the order.

(4) If the defendant fails without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie on him) to comply with any order under this section, the Court may draw such inference from that failure as it considers appropriate.

(5) Where Her Majesty's Procureur accepts to any extent any allegation made by the defendant in giving to the Court information required by an order under this section, the Court may treat that acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(6) For the purposes of this section, an allegation may be accepted in such manner as the Court may direct.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 12 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Further proceedings in connection with confiscation orders

Reconsideration of case where Court has not proceeded under section 2.

13. (1) This section applies where the defendant has appeared before the Court to be sentenced in respect of one or more offences but the Court has not proceeded under section 2.

(2) If Her Majesty's Procureur has evidence –

- (a) which was not available to him when the defendant appeared to be sentenced (and accordingly it was not considered by the Court), but
- (b) which Her Majesty's Procureur believes would have led the Court to determine that the defendant had benefited from criminal conduct if –

(i) Her Majesty's Procureur had asked the Court to proceed under section 2, and

(ii) the evidence had been considered by the Court, he may apply to the Court for it to consider the evidence.

(3) The Court shall proceed under section 2 if, having considered the evidence, it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.

(4) In considering whether it is appropriate to proceed under section 2, the Court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(5) Where, having decided to proceed under section 2, the Court proposes to make a confiscation order against the defendant, it shall order the payment of such amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(6) In considering the circumstances of any case the Court shall have regard, in particular, to the amount of any fine or fines imposed on the defendant in respect of the offence or offences in question.

(7) Where the Court is proceeding under section 2 by virtue of this section, subsection (4) of that section shall have effect as if the words "before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted.

(8) The Court may take into account any property received or obtained by the defendant on or after the date of conviction, but only if Her Majesty's Procureur shows that it was received or obtained by the defendant as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by the defendant or another person on or before that date.

(9) In considering under this section any evidence which relates to any property to which subsection (8) applies, the Court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 4.

(10) No application shall be entertained by the Court under this section if it is made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date of conviction.

(11) Sections 11 and 12 shall apply where Her Majesty's Procureur makes an application under this section as they apply where Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under section 2.

(12) In this section "the date of conviction" means –

- (a) the date on which the defendant was convicted, or
- (b) where he appeared to be sentenced in respect of more than one conviction, and those convictions were not all on the same date, the date of the latest of those convictions.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 13 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Re-assessment of whether defendant has benefited from criminal conduct.

14. (1) This section applies where the Court has made a determination under section 2(2) ("the section 2(2) determination") that the defendant has not benefited from criminal conduct.

(2) If Her Majesty's Procureur has evidence –

- (a) which was not considered by the Court in making the section 2(2) determination, but
- (b) which Her Majesty's Procureur believes would have led the Court to determine that the defendant had benefited from criminal conduct if it had been considered by the Court, he may apply to the Court for it to consider that evidence.

(3) If, having considered the evidence, the Court is satisfied that it would have determined that the defendant had benefited from criminal conduct if that evidence had been available to it, the Court –

- (a) shall make –
 - (i) a fresh determination under section 2(2), and
 - (ii) a determination under section 2(4) of the amount to be recovered by virtue of section 2, and

(b) may make a confiscation order.

(4) Where the Court is proceeding under section 2 by virtue of this section, section 2(4) shall have effect as if the words "before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted.

(5) The Court may take into account any property received or obtained by the defendant on or after the date of the section 2(2) determination, but only if Her Majesty's Procureur shows that it was received or obtained by the defendant as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by the defendant or another person on or before that date.

(6) In considering under this section any evidence which relates to any property to which subsection (5) applies, the Court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 4.

(7) No application shall be entertained by the Court under this section if it is made after the end of the period of 6 years beginning with the date of conviction; and in this subsection "the date of conviction" has the same meaning as in section 13.

(8) Sections 11 and 12 shall apply where Her Majesty's Procureur makes an application under this section as they apply where Her Majesty's Procureur asks the Court to proceed under section 2.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 14 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Revised assessment of the proceeds of criminal conduct.

15. (1) This section applies where the Court has made a determination under section 2(4) of the amount to be recovered in a particular case by virtue of that section ("the current section 2(4) determination").

(2) Where Her Majesty's Procureur is of the opinion that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct was greater than their assessed value, he may apply to the Court for the evidence on which he has formed his opinion to be considered by the Court.

(3) Sections 11 and 12 shall apply where Her Majesty's Procureur makes such an application as they apply where he asks the Court to proceed under section 2, but subject (in the case of section 11) to subsection (9)(a).

(4) If, having considered the evidence, the Court is satisfied that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct is greater than their assessed value (whether because the real value at the time of the current section 2(4) determination was higher than was thought or because the value of the proceeds in question has subsequently increased), the Court shall make a fresh determination under section 2(4) of the amount to be recovered by virtue of that section.

(5) In subsections (2) and (4) –

"assessed value" means the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct as assessed by the Court in accordance with section 5(1), and

"real value" means the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct which took place –

(a) in the period by reference to which the current section 2(4) determination was made, or

(b) in any earlier period.

(6) Where the Court is proceeding under section 2 by virtue of this section, section 2(4) shall have effect as if the words "before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned," were omitted.

(7) Any determination under section 2(4) by virtue of this section shall be by reference to the amount that might be realized at the time when the determination is made.

(8) In the case of any determination under section 2(4) by virtue of this section, section 4(5) shall not apply in relation to any of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct taken into account in respect of the current section 2(4) determination.

(9) In relation to any such determination by virtue of this section –

(a) sections 5(2), 6(4) and 11(8)(a) shall have effect as if for "confiscation order" there were substituted "determination";

(b) section 5(3) shall have effect as if for "confiscation order is made" there were substituted "determination is made"; and

(c) section 6(1) shall have effect as if for "the confiscation order is made against the defendant" there were substituted "of the determination".

(10) The Court may take into account any property received or obtained by the defendant on or after the date of the current section 2(4) determination, but only if Her Majesty's Procureur shows that it was received or obtained by the defendant as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by the defendant or any person on or before that date.

(11) In considering under this section any evidence which relates to any property to which subsection (10) applies, the Court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 4.

(12) If, as a result of making the fresh determination required by subsection (4), the amount to be recovered exceeds the amount set by the current section 2(4) determination, the Court may substitute for the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order which was made by reference to the current section 2(4) determination such greater amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(13) Where the Court varies a confiscation order under subsection (12), it may, if it thinks fit –

- (a) increase the term of imprisonment imposed in respect of the confiscation order, or vary any terms upon which such imprisonment was deferred, under section 9, or
- (b) where it had not previously made such an order of imprisonment, subject to section 9, order the defendant to be imprisoned until the substituted amount is paid.

(14) The Court shall not entertain an application under this section

if it is made more than six years after the date of conviction; and in this subsection "the date of conviction" has the same meaning as in section 13.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 15 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Increase in realisable property.

16. (1) This section applies where, by virtue of section 5(3), the amount which a person is ordered to pay by a confiscation order is less than the amount assessed to be the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct.

(2) If, on an application made in accordance with subsection (3), the Court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised in the case of the person in question is greater than the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order (whether it was greater than was thought when the order was made or has subsequently increased), the Court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving the Court's reasons.

(3) An application under subsection (2) may be made either by Her Majesty's Procureur or Her Majesty's Sheriff appointed as receiver in relation to the realisable property of the person in question under section 26 or 29 or in pursuance of a charging order.

(4) Where a certificate has been issued under subsection (2), Her Majesty's Procureur may apply to the Court for an increase in the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order; and on that application the Court may –

- (a) substitute for that amount such amount (not exceeding the amount assessed as the value referred to in subsection (1)) as appears to the Court to be appropriate having regard to the amount now shown to be realisable, and
- (b) increase the term of imprisonment imposed in respect of the confiscation order, or vary any terms on which such imprisonment was deferred, under section 9 or, where it had not previously made such an order of imprisonment, subject to section 9, order the defendant to be imprisoned until the substituted amount is paid.

NOTES

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 16 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

The following case has referred to section 16:

HM Procureur v Peter Edward Dawson-Ball [2021]GRC061
(Unreported, Royal Court, 15th December).

Inadequacy of realisable property.

- 17. (1) If, on an application made in respect of a confiscation order by

- (a) the defendant, or
- (b) Her Majesty's Sheriff appointed as receiver under section 26 or 29 or in pursuance of a charging order, the Court is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the confiscation order, the Court shall issue a certificate to that effect giving the Court's reasons.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) –

- (a) in the case of realisable property held by a person whose affairs have been declared to be in a state of désastre, the Court shall take into account the extent to which any property held by him would be included among the preferred debts (within the meaning of section 1 of the Preferred Debts (Guernsey) Law, 1983^j); and for the purposes of the said section 1 the relevant date shall be the date of the confiscation order, and
- (b) the Court may disregard any inadequacy in the realisable property which appears to it to be attributable wholly or partly to anything done by the defendant for the purpose of preserving any property held by a person to whom the defendant had directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Law from any risk of realisation under this Law.

(3) Where a certificate has been issued under subsection (1), the person who applied for it may apply to the Court for an order reducing the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order.

^j Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXVIII, p. 184; No. VII of 1992; No. III of 1993 and No. IX of 1998.

- (4) The Court, on an application under subsection (3) –
 - (a) shall substitute for the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order such lesser amount as the Court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case, and
 - (b) may substitute for the term of imprisonment imposed under section 9 in respect of the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order a shorter term in respect of the lesser amount, or vary any terms upon which such imprisonment was deferred.
- (5) Rules of Court may make provision –
 - (a) for the giving of notice of any application under this section, and
 - (b) for any person appearing to the Court to be likely to be affected by any exercise of its powers under this section to be given an opportunity to make representations to the Court.

NOTE

Compensation.

18. (1) If proceedings are instituted against a person for any offence or offences and either –

- (a) the proceedings do not result in his conviction for any offence, or
- (b) he is convicted of one or more offences but –
 - (i) the conviction or convictions concerned are quashed, or
 - (ii) he is pardoned by Her Majesty in respect of the conviction or convictions concerned, the Court may, on an application by a person who held property which was realisable property, order compensation to be paid to the applicant if, having regard to all the circumstances, it considers it appropriate to make such an order.

(2) The Court shall not order compensation to be paid in any case unless the Court is satisfied –

- (a) that there has been some serious default on the part of a person concerned in the investigation or prosecution of the offence or offences concerned, and
- (b) that the applicant has suffered loss in consequence of anything done in relation to the property by or in pursuance of an order of the Court under sections 26 to 29.

(3) The Court shall not order compensation to be paid in any case where it appears to the Court that the proceedings would have been instituted or continued even if the serious default had not occurred.

(4) The amount of compensation to be paid under this section shall be such as the Court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(5) Compensation payable under this section shall be paid by the States of Guernsey.

NOTE

In its application to external confiscation orders, section 18 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Enforcement of Overseas Confiscation Orders) Ordinance, 1999, section 1(2), Schedule 2, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st January, 2000.

Confiscation orders where the defendant has absconded or died
